

Interpretation Center, Fort Malden National Historic Park, Amherstburg, Ontario.

Constructed about 1860 as the laundry and bake house for the Malden Lunatic Asylum, this building has undergone many changes, from a planing mill to a private residence to its present use as an area for exhibits relating to the history of Fort Malden.

Photograph by: Barry Schneider
Pub. by Schneider Enterprises & Gifts Ltd., Woodstock, Ontario, Canada

post card

Made in Canada

DEXTER COLOR, CANADA, LTD.
CORNWALL, ONTARIO